

History 20 Cresson Record Pages 1 thru 10

The following material was sent to me by Mike McGuire of Cresson in May 2012. In the 1980's, Mike had access for one week to editions of the Cresson Record newspaper, which was established in 1895 by Joseph E. Farabaugh. In "History of Cambria County, Vol 1" published in 1907 it says that the Cresson Record was independent of politics, had four pages each 17x24 inches in size and was published on Friday.

Mike copied articles of interest to him which included Cresson San items as he was employed at the Cresson/Ebensburg Center at the time and found the news items fascinating. For instance, did you know that in 1916 a copper box time capsule was installed in the cornerstone of Grace Chapel during construction? Go to Page 52 to read the article and see a list of items included in the copper box.

Some of the san articles are only a few paragraphs in length. But I decided to publish the entire page as I felt that many of the news items unrelated to the san might provide an interesting glance back into history for Cresson area residents.

The material is comprised of 80 images from the Cresson Record newspaper. The articles are arranged in chronological order and span the years from 1910 to 1923, with several from 1941 at the end. Therefore, they add much to the historical record of the early days of the san.

The 80 images are displayed in groups of 10 images on 8 pages, shown below. The individual images are numbered 1 through 80 for easy reference. In some cases, a san article is continued to one or more pages. In that case, a note in the page number will state (Article is continued on Page x). Each group of 10 images is approximately 10MB in size, so it may take 1 to 2 minutes for all to display.

COAL TRUST AT BAY

Summoned to Answer to Charges in Federal Courts August 1.

Scranton, Pa., June 26.—Charged with violating the interstate commerce law and the provisions of the Sherman act, summonses were served on three of the big coal companies of this region. It is the first move of the government against the coal-carrying roads to compel them to explain their relations with the Reading company.

The Delaware, Lackawanna & Western, the Erie company and the Lehigh & Wilkesbarre coal company are the three on which papers were served. While all three companies are charged with violating the laws referred to, the specific charge against them is that they are a party to an alleged combine, formed for the purpose of restraining trade and fixing an arbitrary price upon a commodity.

CARNEGIE'S GENEROUS GIFT Six-Hundred-Acre Tract at Summit Given to County For Hospital Purposes

The sentimental ties which make the Carnegies, Thaws, Parks and other wealthy Pittsburg families seem to Cambria County people as being almost a part of them were strengthened Thursday when County Commissioner Conrad Hahn received a letter from Andrew Carnegie offering to present the county the handsome Carnegie property near Cresson, to be used as a site for the proposed county insane hospital. Mr. Carnegie's formal offer followed correspondence between Mr. Hahn and Skiba Castle.

The Carnegie property consists of about six hundred acres and is situated at the very summit of the Alleghenies, about three-fourths of a mile from Cresson, the plateau affording a view for many miles. Mr. Carnegie purchased it about 15 years ago when Cresson was in its hey-day as a summer resort. It lies at the junction of the Pittsburg pike with the old Frankstown road and between the old Portage roadbed and the Frankstown road.

Mr. Carnegie proposed to build upon the property a huge castellated palace of stone. He had driveways made, trees planted and other steps taken to secure something like one of the old Highland baronial estates on one of the highest points in Pennsylvania, but later amended his plans and the place has since grown up.

The Carnegie offer has to be submitted to a committee of physicians which has in charge the selection of a site for the asylum, but there is little doubt of its acceptance. The property offered is worth at least $300,000.

Judge Thomas Dead

The Hon. John D. Thomas, one of the best known citizens of Cambria county, died Thursday afternoon at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Anna Bertram of Altoona, while "Judge" Thomas, as he was widely known, having been an associate judge in this county a number of years ago, had not been in good health for some time past. The end came very unexpectedly and as a result of heart failure.

For many years the deceased was in the hotel business in this county. He at one time conducted the widely known "Half Way House" near Carrolltown. Later he was the proprietor of hotel properties at the Summit, South Fork and in Johnstown.

$350,000 FOR CAMBRIA INSANE ASYLUM

Committee of Physicians Appointed By County Commissioners Favors Cresson Site.

The county commissioners, two of the poor directors, their attorneys and a committee of physicians appointed to assemble data relative to the erection of a county insane hospital, met here last Tuesday afternoon and after going over all matter in their hands decided to recommend the erection of an institution to cost $350,000 on the property which will be donated by Andrew Carnegie for that purpose.

The meeting was held behind closed doors and consumed nearly the entire afternoon. Four or five sites that would be suitable for the location of such an institution were submitted to the meeting, but none of them appeared to be better adapted for the purpose than the one offered free by Andrew Carnegie. The matter of a selection of the site, however, falls to the state department of charities and this body will decide whether or not the buildings shall be located here. A list of all the properties offered will be included in the statement to be submitted to the authorities of the state and in all probability the Carnegie site will be selected.

The conference was held at the Anderson House and began behind closed doors shortly after 3 o'clock. Those present were County Commissioners Hahn, Leventry and Owens; Commissioners' Council John W. Kephart; Poor Directors Bader and Hertzog; Steward Thomas Hughes, of the County Home; Attorney E. H. Davis, counsel for the Poor Directors, and the full membership of the special commission, composed of Drs. George W. Wagoner and W. J. George, of Johnstown; Dr. D. S. Rice, of Hastings; Dr. F. C. Kress, of Lilly, and Dr. F. C. Jones, of Ebensburg.

Through Attorney Kephart, an invitation had been extended to State Commissioner of Health Dixon, but the latter was unable to be present. The co-operation of the State Board of Health is necessary in order that the proposed institution may receive State aid. Unless the site and other details are approved by Dr. Dixon, the county would be obliged to bear the entire expense.

Two Hundred Liquor Men and Families Picnicked Here Last Thursday

Cresson was flooded with hotel men last Thursday when the general landlords with their wives and families met here to combine business and pleasure when they held their regular monthly meeting and picnic combined. They were here 200 strong and they enjoyed themselves as only men who seldom get a day off can.

The business end of the gathering took up almost all of the morning, the meeting being held in Brown's Opera House.

After the reading of the minutes of the last meeting and disposing of the minor matters that came up for discussion, P. H. Nolan, of Pittsburg, National Organizer of the association, was introduced. Mr. Nolan, who is of prepossessing appearance and a fluent talker, well versed on matters pertaining to the liquor question, held the rapt attention of the gathering for over an hour. The National Organizer laid particular stress on properly conducting a public house. Cautioning the members to live up to the Brook's law to the letter, and respect the wishes of the court regarding licensed houses, contending that the local court is very fair and those who have been censured, in the majority of cases, were guilty of violations.

In the afternoon the party repaired to Rhododendron Park where dancing was indulged in until evening. Maitland's orchestra of seven pieces furnished excellent music.

Gallitzin and Johnstown Men Are the New Proprietors and Transfer is Asked For

A deal has been closed by which Thomas Callan, the well-known wholesale liquor dealer of this place, disposes of his establishment to Joseph Smith of Gallitzin and James B. Plummer of Johnstown, the consideration being $10,000. Application has been made to the court for a transfer of the license and Judge O'Connor will render a decision at Ebensburg next week.

Mr. Callan has pressing business elsewhere that demands his attention and he will retire from the wholesale liquor business as soon as the transfer is granted to the new owners.

Peace Conference In Philadelphia This Month

In the interest of the world movement for the establishment of Peace through Arbitration by permanent International Tribunals, a Pennsylvania State Conference has been called for May 16, 17, 18 and 19, 1908, in the City of Philadelphia.

The success of the Conference held in New York, April, 1907, and its far-reaching influence upon the deliberations of the second Hague Conference, have suggested the need of a series of State Conferences to be held throughout the United States prior to the Third Hague Conference. In this, as in other movements for the public welfare, Pennsylvania is expected to take the lead. (5-75-08)

Meeting of Cemetery Association.

The Cresson Cemetery Association met in the Record office Monday evening, the following persons being present: Rev. John C. Steele, Dr. Robert Devereaux, Henry Taylor, J. M. Spicher, Arthur Wylie, C. J. Shoff, Jas. Buck, H. A. Mentch and B. C. Seeds. The meeting was called to order with Dr. Devereaux in the chair. C. J. Shoff was elected temporary Secretary. It was decided to have an engineer make a complete survey of the cemetery grounds and to plot it off into lots, with necessary driveways and walks. After this has been done another meeting will be called for the purpose of determining what price will be charged by the association for burial lots. It was also decided that the association shall take what money they now have, collect what they can, and erect a fence around the entire cemetery. Those present were very enthusiastic and a determined effort will be made to have the cemetery grounds fixed up at once and kept in good repair. A notice of the next meeting will be published in the Record and it is desired that all lot owners and others who are interested be present.

Frankness In Invitations.

Among curiosities which are models of frankness is the following: "Lord and Lady Spencer request the honor of — company at dinner at half past 6 o'clock on —. An answer is particularly desired. Nobody waited for after 7 o'clock." On many invitations the time was, of course, stated, and "A polite answer requested," or sometimes "A reply would oblige," but the letters "R. S. V. P." were hardly ever used at this date, their first mention being in 1781, on the card of Lord and Lady Spencer Liveryman Thomas Douglass was in Glen Campbell last week and purchased the Williams livery of that place. The outfit has been brought here. Mr. Douglass also purchased a closed cab at Pittsburg one day last week.

Met With an Accident.

While at work in the Cresson Foundry Wednesday afternoon, Abe Taylor, one of the foremen, was struck by a piece of iron rail, severely injuring his right leg. While no bones are broken, the accident will necessitate his remaining quiet for several days. He was attended by Dr. Frank A. Detrick, of First street.

MODERN SURGERY.

Its Minute and Elaborate System of Sterilization.

The scene at an operating table in one of our hospitals now would make one of the old masters of surgery stare. The operator himself and all his staff are dressed like the old holy priests of Solomon's temple, wearing white caps and gowns, with the nurses standing around like priestesses all in spotless white, while every one about the table has gone through as many ablutions as befits the occasion of a bloody sacrifice under the auspices of the immaculate goddess of cleanliness. A minute and elaborate ritual has been observed of sterilizing everything—towels, needles, forceps, instruments and what not—while the floor itself is made of glass or glazed tiles rather than of wood. The surgeon himself does not venture to cut the victim till he has put on his sterilized gloves, because he cannot possibly clean his fingers enough. Should any onlooker take his hand out of his pocket to reach for the gaping wound he would be ejected instant for spilling the whole performance with his defiling touch.

The results of this vigilant war against microbes are simply marvelous and can be fully appreciated only by those who, like myself, can remember the surgery of former days in hospital wards and on the battlefield.—Everybody's Magazine.

BUTTER BY THE YARD.

The Way It Is Sold, Pure and Sweet, In Cambridge, England.
In Cambridge, England, butter is sold by the yard. For generations it has been the practice of Cambridge-shire dairy folk to roll their butter into lengths, each length measuring a yard and weighing a pound. Deftly wrapped in strips of clean white cloth, the cylindrical rolls are packed in long, narrow baskets made for the purpose and thus conveyed to market. The butter women who, in white linea aprons and sleeves, preside over the stalls in the market have no need of weights or scales for dispensing their wares. Constant practice and experienced eyes enable them with a stroke of the knife to divide a in a critical condition at the Altoona hospital. He was somewhat improved yesterday and the hospital authorities have hopes of his recovery.

Lothrop who is a construction foreman for the American Union Telephone Company, and travels all over the country putting up lines, came to Cresson two months ago from Harrisburg. He is a member of the Eagles and from his identification card it was learned that his home was in Cherryfield, Me.

On Friday last, the day of his misfortune, he hired a horse and buggy from Liveryman O'Hara to drive out along the line where he had men at work. On his way home he passed through Gallitzin, and about a mile out of town he met with some accident the cause of which has not as yet been definitely ascertained. His injuries may be the result of an accident, or he may have been waylaid by robbers, or someone who desired to get even for an old score. However, if the misfortune was the result of a holdup, nothing should be left undone to apprehend and punish the guilty parties, as the act was a most atrocious one.

The hospital authorities informed the Record, just before going to press, that Mr. Lothrop had regained consciousness and was improving, but had made no intelligent statement.

Notice to Contractors.

Sealed bids will be received by the Commissioners of Cambria County, at Ebensburg, Pa., until 2 o'clock p. m., Friday, May 29, 1908, for the erection of a concrete bridge across Clearfield Creek, in Gallitzin Township, on the road leading from Ashville to Gallitzin. Preliminary reports upon the tract of 450 acres here that has been offered, to the state for a tuberculosis sanitarium by Andrew Carnegie strengthen the belief that the property is admirably adapted for such purposes. F. Herbert Snow, chief sanitary engineer, and Thomas Fleming, Jr. chief of designs, spent Wednesday upon the tract, taking a general look at things. Mr.
Fleming was there last Saturday with Commissioner of Health Samuel G.
Dixon.

The incomplete reports Dr. Dixon has received, added to the knowledge he has himself obtained upon his visits, indicate that the plot contains sufficient sandstone, sand and timber to supply the requisite materials for the necessary buildings without in any way detracting from the value of the property.
The water also appears to be abundant and of good quality and samples are now being tested to determine its quality.

It is understood that a complete report upon the tract, setting forth the title to the land with a description of its natural resources, will soon be placed before Gov. Stuart. The attorney general's department will be called upon to pass upon the resort to determine the legality of the proceedings.

William Loeb, Jr., collector of the port, was the man who granted immunity to the three men. It was understood that Judge Holt's rebuke applied to Mr. Loeb. Mr. Loeb himself took it that way. He issued a statement defending his course on the score that it was necessary to keep the three on his payroll, because that was the only way the whole system of graft could be uprooted.

CRESSON AS A PLACE FOR TUBERCULOSIS SANATORIUM

The Following Article Was Written By a Prominent Resident of This Place And Sent to The Record For Publication

A great deal has been published in various newspapers concerning Cresson as an ideal spot for a tuberculosis sanitarium, but much of what has been said is either untrue or exaggerated. The tract of land here which Carnegie has contributed to the state for that purpose has been mentioned in a number of newspapers as a virginal pine forest, when in fact there is not a pine tree on the place nor is there any pine within four or five miles distant. The climate here is the most severe in Pennsylvania; the temperature frequently changing fifty degrees within two hours. Winds, frequent and severe, sweep over hills denuded of whatever timber they once possessed or over scrubby, bushy patches, the appearance of which is aggravating, and dense fogs saturate the atmosphere with moisture.
With coal mining and coke making and a steady stream of railroad engines puffing over a steep grade at all hours the smoke and cinders have become so troublesome that many of the residents are coughing up grime like coal miners. Dust-proof boot-cases are not proof against the fine coal dust. It is almost impossible to dry clean clothing in the open atmosphere on account of the dust and smoke. It is a common remark that Cresson is as smoky as Pittsburg.
There was a time when the air of Cresson was pure, her waters free from contamination, her summer days and nights cool and delightful, but on account of increasing population and industrial developments there is nothing of that left but the coolness. I am inclined to think that most of Cresson's reputation as a health resort came from the fact that her summers' day and evening temperature is much cooler than that of the City. However, this reputation was established at a time when conditions were very different from what they are to-day.

ing of that left but the coolness. I am inclined to think that most of Cresson's reputation as a health resort came from the fact that her summers' day and evening temperature is much cooler than that of the City. However, this reputation was established at a time when conditions were very different from what they are to-day.

Now as to the place being suitable for the tubercular: A number of our residents are developing the malady and dying of it. Some have left for other climates, improved and returned only to again fall victims of the symptoms of the disease.

Those who come here from other climates with the hope of being benefited by the much boasted pure air, cannot stand the vigorous change of climate. And most of them return to their homes in a weaker condition than when they come.

It goes without saying that most of us are opposed to a tuberculosis sanitarium almost in our midst. Those who might think it will be a good thing do not realize what a danger there will be in having hundreds of the infected coming and going through our depot, which no doubt will soon be centrally located. I say going as well as coming because many who go away will be as dangerous as when they come. And again those who believe that the infected will all be confined within the camp grounds do not consider the fact that a certain per centage of those who go to a sanitarium refuse to undergo the routine and leave to seek local quarters (which they can always find somewhere in the community) where they are at liberty to go and come as they please.

It does not suffice to say that we must be more humane than to object to those people coming amongst us. It cannot do them a particle of good to be allowed to jeopardize the health of the well, and if the state of Pennsylvania can establish a sanitarium on a 400 acre plot it can easily find such a plot that is not in a populated district like Cresson, and much more healthful.

Two Former "Hello" Girls "Ring Off" And Take Vows of Matrimony

Two pretty wedding ceremonies, the first performed in St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church on Powell avenue, were solemnized Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

DURBIN-WITTINGHAM

The first couple to enjoy this distinction were Miss Anna Durbin of Sankertown and James Whittingham of Atlantic City. The ceremony uniting them was performed by Father Graven at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday morning. The bride appeared very beautiful in white satin. The attendants were Miss Carolin Durbin, sister of the bride, and James McConnell of Atlantic City. Mrs. Whittingham is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Durbin of Sankertown. She was formerly an operator in the central at this place of the American Union Telephone Company.

Mr. Whittingham is also well known here having for several years been a clerk in the C. and C. offices.

The happy couple left on train No. 12 Tuesday for Atlantic City where they will make their home. The bride was very attractive in a travelling dress of crushed strawberry velvet silk.

FLICK-DELOZIER

Wednesday morning at 6:30 in the new church Miss Justina Flick of this place was united to Harry Delozier of Glen Campbell. The attendants were Mr. Lohmire of Glen Campbell and Miss Cooper of Loretto. The bride was very prettily dressed in white net over white silk.

WORK STARTED ON SANATORIUM

Carnegie Turns Over Land to State For Tuberculosis Treatment

State Health Commissioner Dixon at Harrisburg Tuesday evening received a telegram from Andrew Carnegie telling him to consider himself in possession of the tract at this place, which the iron-master offered to the State as a site for a tuberculosis sanatorium.

The commissioners at once issued orders for the surveyors of his department to begin work and within a few weeks complete data regarding the property will be on the desk of the health chief. Dr. Dixon said Tuesday evening that he would have architects begin work without delay on plans for an administration building, dining hall, cottages and other buildings.

The new sanatorium will be established with slight loss of time. There will be little timber to cut, as was the case at Mont Alto, and by next fall most of the buildings will be in place. This sanatorium will be for advanced cases, although ample provision will be made for patients in early stages.

Very Pleasant Evening Spent At Home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gradwohl

Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gradwohl very delightfully entertained a few friends at their home on First street. The event was in honor of Mrs. Gradwohl's sister, Miss Isabelle George, of Allentown who with her mother Mrs. Nicholas, is spending a few weeks at the Gradwohl home. Cards and other entertaining diversions helped to pass a most pleasant time. An appetizing lunch was served at a late hour.

"See that hen over there," said the duck; "she hasn't laid as many eggs as I have, nor as big, but she has books written about her and verses composed in her honor, while nobody is saying a word about me." "The trouble with you is," said the wise old rooster that was standing near, "that you don't tell the public what you have done. You lay an egg and waddle off without saying a word, but that sister of mine never lays one without letting every one in the neighborhood know about it. Sleep is the best cure for waking trouble. Hours for sleep:

The Hindoos say it is bad luck to sleep with your head to the north, but sleeping with your head to the south promotes longevity.

It is considered by some nations dangerous to sleep while thirsty, for the soul leaves the body in search of water, and if the body awakened too quickly the soul might not have time to return to it, so the body would die.

REV. HAYS SPEAKS OF DECEASED PASTOR

College Classmate Of Rev. Anderson And Intimate Friend

Johnstown, Pa., March 16, 1910.
Editor Cresson Record,

In accordance with your request I take pleasure in writing a few lines concerning Dr. Anderson, the late pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Cresson. We were in college together for a brief time, and I knew him intimately. He was a man of exceptional ability, and had thoroughly equipped himself for the ministry. He was graduated with honor from Washington and Jefferson College in 1882, and received his theological education at the Western Theological Seminary of Pittsburg and at the Union Seminary of New York City. Later he took a post graduate course abroad and traveled extensively in Bible lands. His first charge was a large and influential country church at Buffalo, in Washington County, but he spent most of his ministry at Sistersville, West Virginia, where he did great work reaching out into all portions of the State. His health having broken down, he spent some months in rest and travel, and came to Cresson because he felt that he would be able to do the work of a church of that size when a more dif-

IMPRESSED AT MOUNT ALTO

Mary Roberts Rinehart Expresses Her Regard Of Sanatorium

Mary Roberts Rinehart, the well known author and playwright, whose "Seven Days" is making the hit of the season in New York, paid a visit to the State Sanatorium for Tuberculosis at Mount Alto this week. In speaking of her visit she said:

"I am deeply impressed with Mount Alto. I have just come from one of America's famous Health Resorts and comparing one with the other, I think Mount Alto more than holds its own."

"I went to stay an hour and stayed a whole day and a night."

"What impressed me? I think it was the restfulness of the place; that and the expression of hope on the faces of some new arrivals who climbed the mountain just behind us, and the radiant happiness of those who were going home cured. There were plenty of other things: The air, which must have been a surprise to my Pittsburg lungs; the order and cleanliness of the place; its size, for it looks and is a trim village; the cheerful faces of the attendants as well as the patients; the beautiful indulgence of the convalescents; and oh yes, the deer. Imagine having wild deer that are not wild and that had the colossal audacity to come down and eat the new wheat under our very noses."

The Sanatorium to be erected at Summit will be almost duplicate in size and construction of the one at Mt. Alto. Health Commissioner, Dr. Dixon, when here last week, expressed his opinion that the institution here has a most ideal location. He seemed much pleased with the prospects of the sanatorium and will rush the work to completion.

The occasion will be celebrated by the local order in an interesting and entertaining manner. Rev. B. H. Hart, Past Grand Master of Harrisburg, will deliver a lecture in the Presbyterian church here in the evening, which the public are cordially invited to attend.

After the lecture an informal reception will be held in the Odd Fellows Hall on Keystone avenue, to which all members of the local order No. 724 with their friends are earnestly requested to be present. The Rebecca Lodge and Odd Fellows of Gallitzin will attend in a body.

JONES COTTAGE GOES TO STATE

Will Be Used By Health Department
In Connection With Sanatorium
Here

Mrs. B. F. Jones, widow of the late Pittsburg steel manufacturer, has given to the state department of health her handsome cottage in the Mountain House Grounds here.

The property cost $18,000. The ground on which it stands, about 100 by 200 feet, is leased for 99 years, 45 years of which has expired. At the end of the fifty years the state has the option of either abandoning or moving the building, according to the present lease.

Commissioner of Health Samuel G. Dixon, to whom the offer was made will accept it for the State. It has not been decided of what use it will be put to, but in all probability it will be used as a dispensary in connection with the Tuberculosis Sanatorium at Summit.

INSPECT THE JONES COTTAGE

State Health Commissioner Samuel G. Dixon and a party of officials connected with the department, arrived here yesterday morning, on Pacific Express. They spent the day at the site of the new state tuberculosis sanitarium, the ground for which was recently donated to the state by Andrew Carnegie.

Dr. Dixon was accompanied on the trip by Chief Engineer F. Herbert Snow and Assistant Engineer Thomas Fleming of the state health department, Architect Welsh of the firm of Welsh, Sturdyvant & Poggi of Wilkes-Barre, who are drawing plans for the sanitarium, and Mr. Morse, Dr. Dixon's private secretary.

Dr. Dixon spoke enthusiastically of the project and the gift of Mr. Carnegie. He stated that much has already been accomplished on the ground and that, after the work done out there by the party yesterday, progress will be even more rapid in the immediate future.

The site of the main hospital has been selected and the ground almost cleared off for it and one of the objects of yesterday's trip was to locate the sites for the remaining buildings, after which the work will start on them as soon as possible.

The main work done yesterday by the party, however was the laying out of the sewage system, the engineers to plan the system for the entire grounds and buildings. Dr. Dixon said that for a tuberculosis sanitarium the proper disposal of sewage was a matter of paramount importance and he incidentally remarked that the state department would do this first and permit of no delay, as Altoona had with her sewage system.

Dr. Dixon also met yesterday morning, Mr. S. S. Shaw, a representative

LITTLE GIRL KILLED AT LILLY

Catherine, nine year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Dunn of Dutchtown, near Lilly, was struck and killed by a "snapper" at Conrad's crossing at Lilly yesterday afternoon at four o'clock. The little girl was on her way home from school, crossing the tracks, when meeting two little friends on their way to a store, she decided to go with them and have company home. Her little friends going first got across the tracks all right, but she was struck by the engine, her skull being crushed. Ben Pierce picked her up and carried her to John Conrad's home, near the scene of the sad accident. The unfortunate little victim lived only five minutes. The remains were taken to the undertaking establishment of Mr. Rishan, where they were prepared for burial.

Mention has been made by the Mountaineer Herald of Stineman holding office.

He has been a candidate for State Chairman of the Republican County Committee for four years or more. Mr. Stineman has nothing on Hartman when it comes to Tenure of office.

Cambria County's Choice For Congress

Hon. J. C. Stineman, Republican candidate for the nomination for Congress from the 19th Congressional District and the only Candidate Cambria County puts forward for this honor, was born April 9th, 1842, in Richland township, this County. His father and grandfather were early Cambria County citizens. Jacob C. Stineman spent his early life attending school, working on the farm and teaching school. The latter occupation he followed for several years. Early in the Civil War he enlisted as a private in Company F, One Hundred and Ninety-eighth Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry and served with that regiment until the close of the war. He was promoted to the rank of corporal and later to that of sergeant and when he again returned home he took up farming. In 1868 he began working as a coal miner. From the hard work of a miner Mr. Stineman passed to the position of mine boss, then to a superintendent of a mine and in 1873 bought a piece of land and began mining coal for himself.

From the outset of Mr. Stineman's political career he has been identified with the Republican Party. When Cambria County was Democratic back in '70 and '80, Jacob Stineman worked loyally for the success of the party and contributed largely to the campaign funds of the Republican Party and succeeded in 1888 in breaking into the strong-hold of the Democratic Party and making Cambria County Republican. As a County Chairman it is a well known fact that Mr. Stineman largely financed the Republican campaigns in Cambria County and it is an undisputed fact known to every voter that Stineman has contributed more money to the Republican Party than he ever got from the County or the State as an officer.

Stineman was the founder of the Daniel T. Stineman Post, No. 560, G. A. R. of South Fork; he is a member of the I. O. O. F. of Wilmore, the Knights of Pythias, and Cambria Lodge, No. 278, F. & A. M. He is Cambria County's only candidate for Congress and deserves the support of its Republican voters.

Cambria Entitled To Nomination

The attempt of Sen. Wertz and the County office rotation system to force onto Cambria County voters an outside man, a multi-millionaire, because there is no man in Cambria County good enough for the congressional job, is causing much alarm in the ranks of the Republican voters. Cambria is entitled to this nomination. In the past 18 years, little Bedford has had the office eight years, Blair six years and Cambria four years. Cambria has as many voters as both Blair and Bedford combined, yet the bosses do not want Cambria to have it and more particularly they don't want Stineman. The Boss, Sen. Wertz, wants Hartmann of Blair County. Why? Sen. Wertz can absolutely control the appointment of post-masters in Cambria County; if Hartmann is elected, Wertz will own Hartmann as he did Congressman Reynolds. No post-master in this county be he great or small will be appointed except through Sen. Wertz. It does not matter if every voter of the district should sign for him Mr. Wertz will not permit his appointment, unless he suits Wertz's convenience. In Cresson the present post-master has over 500 names to his petition yet his petition is held up. Why? Wertz, through this power of post-masters controls the County offices. Wertz names the county officers and they mostly in turn support Wertz. Why do they do this? Four of these gentlemen in Ebensburg divide every year among themselves some $50,000.00. Here is some of the yearly pay-roll for the last year, 1909:

Sheriff cleared	$20,000.00
Treasurer's office	14,000.00
Prothonotary	6,000.00
Recorder	6,000.00
	$46,000.00

An average of $13,000 per man per year. This does not include the money paid to deputies, etc. It would make the yearly divvy some $100,000.00. It is making some people rich. Very rich. They

Dr. Dixon also met yesterday morning, Mr. S. S. Shaw, a representative of Mrs. B. F. Jones of Pittsburg, who recently gave to the state her handsome cottage, to be used in connection with the sanitarium. They viewed the cottage and grounds with the intention of determining what changes will have to be made to it in order to fit it for the uses to which it will be put.

Cresson Wins First Two Games Of Season

Last Saturday the first baseball game of the season was played on the local grounds when the Cresson Division team defeated the Conemaugh aggregation in a closely contested game by the score of 2-1.

The Sankertown band attended the game in uniforms and added greatly to the life of the exhibition by rendering a number of catchy selections.

Fulerton and Baird curved the sphere for the home team and both done excellent work. A crippled pitcher for the visitors surprised both the spectators and his opponents by playing decidedly the star game of any individual player.

Both teams displayed talent and material that looks good for some lively and interesting contests this season.

The Altoona Semi Professionals received the usual treatment at the hands of the locals on Wednesday afternoon. The game started well but Werin, the Altoona slab artist, hit three men in the second inning and this, together with five good solid hits, placed the home team in a safe position.

SANITORIUM BUILDING PLANS ACCEPTED

State Board of Health Approves
Location, Water Supply, Air, and Sunlight

WORK TO PROCEED RAPIDLY

State Health Commissioner Samuel G. Dixon of Harrisburg has approved the plans for the erection of the first buildings at the Tuberculosis Sanatorium at Summit and within a short time bids will be asked on the construction of the first group of three buildings. As the result of extended tests and surveys the water, air, and location have been found to be admirably adapted to the purposes of a tuberculosis sanatorium for western Pennsylvania.

The arrangement of the buildings is Dr. Dixon's own idea and is an exceedingly simple but unique plan. He studied the lay of the land and finally hit upon a location which would give a maximum of sunlight and at the same time give air currents at all times. The first building will be an administration building of an attractive design, considerably different from the general type of sanatorium buildings. Then the kitchen and dining room will be built somewhat in the form of a Greek cross with wings connecting with the wards or dormitories. The passageways will serve the double purpose of permitting people to walk from quarters to dining rooms and for transportation of food to those in the infirmary and also as open-air pavilions.

The same general plan will be followed in the construction of the Hamburg sanatorium.

WHAT WILL BE ON TO MORROW

Company Will Rebuild Operation With Steele And Concrete

New plant of the Cresson Electric Company, now in the course of reconstruction to replace the plant destroyed at the fire last Friday, will probably be in service to-morrow. While the fire, which destroyed the plant and seven other buildings of the Pennsylvania Coal & Coke Company, was yet burning, a contract was placed with the Westinghouse Electric Company of Pittsburgh for a new and modern light plant. The new machinery has been ordered and is being installed as rapidly as possible.

A new generator and other machinery for the new light plant will be a decided improvement over that just destroyed. The anti-cyclical, single phase, currently used will be changed to three phase and modern 60 two-phase current. This change will render useless a number of motors at business places about the town. The officials of the light company have agreed to the expense of making the necessary change in their customers' motorators immediately following the fire the work of clearing and taking away the debris has begun. Plans are now being prepared to rebuild the entire generating plant. The new tipples and buildings will be constructed of steel and concrete instead of frame structures as before. It is probable that the entire workings will be in operation by next

The above picture, which was taken the following morning while the fire was still burning, shows on the right the remaining air shaft where the debris was taken out. The smoke shows where the boiler house and engine house stood and directly to the left of the smoke stacks is where the plant was located, the latter being the building in which the fire broke out. In the left of the picture, the debris by smoke and fire, is where the double tipple and other machinery were located.

WOODMAN LUMBER COMPANY 872-10 LANDS SANITORIUM CONTRACT

Local Firm's Success Will Give Employment to Many In This Immediate Vicinity

THE CONTRACT WILL INCLUDE FIVE BUILDINGS OF NATIVE STONE

Most welcome is the news to this vicinity that the Woodman Lumber Company of this place is the successful bidder on the large tuberculosis sanatorium to be erected here. This fact was made definitely known in a communication received here Wednesday from State Health Commissioner Dr. Dixon advising Mr. D. Earl Brown, Treasurer of the Woodman Lumber Company, that his firm was the lowest bidder. The letter also requested Mr. Brown to appear at the State Capitol Monday next to take necessary action in closing the contract.

The bids called for the construction of five buildings as follows: East ward or main building 406 feet long, dining building, administration building, power building, laundry building and connecting corridors. The work will commence immediately following the final action in closing the contract. Fifteen months is the time allotted to complete the work.

This news comes as a gratifying reaction of the disheartening loss by fire at No. 9 shaft last Friday which threw a number of men out of work. The sanatorium construction will give employment to every man in this immediate neighborhood who is able and willing to work. It will also bring a large number of workmen to this place. The home enterprise getting the work will no doubt keep the bulk of the sub contracts among other home industries.

Mr. Brown is to be congratulated and commended upon his successful efforts in landing the big deal. He has proven himself an enterprising business man while his firm's former accomplishments in practically building the coal towns of Ehrenfeld, Nanty-Glo and Vintondale tend to assure its ability to masterfully complete the present magnificent contract.

The amount of the successful bid has not yet been made known but it will probably border on $300,000.00.

Members of the Cresson Volunteer fire company, protecting the air shaft and keeping the fan going by hand until the scorching flames had subsided.

The fire started just before six o'clock in the evening and before seven o'clock eight buildings had been destroyed.

Shortly after six o'clock the carriage dropped down the main shaft. At six-thirty the two large sheave wheels and tower fell crashing among the debris. The tipple adjoining the main shaft contained several hundred tons of coal and at seven o'clock this tumbled to the earth in a blazing and seething mass.

The chemist's laboratory stood about thirty feet from a tank containing one hundred gallons of naphtha. This was saved from exploding through the thoughtfulness of the chemist in sending someone to shut again in commission at about nine o'clock.

Traffic on the main line of the P. R. R. was stopped until the intense heat had subsided and the threatening flames ceased to blow across the main line which passes immediately along side the mines.

The Volunteer fire company turned out promptly and although their chemical wagon and hose was rendered useless by the enormity of the flames and lack of water, they done gallant service in the bucket brigade and other services.

Editor Cresson Record:

Dear Sir:—Kindly allow me the use of a portion of your valued columns to say a few words in connection with the course of entertainments now being given by the Antrim Entertainment Bureau for the benefit of the Fire Company. The first number of the course given Monday night, The Chicago Ladies' Orchestra, was the most poorly patronized entertainment ever given in Cresson, and was worthy of a packed house at the nominal price of admission being charged for these separate events.

In the face of the support accorded the firemen, in their endeavor to free themselves of debt and to provide proper means of protecting the property of Cresson, it is very evident that the majority of four citizens do not care for a fire company in the town, as starting with a membership of over eighty it has dwindled to a paltry 16, who are striving in various ways, of which this entertainment course is one, to keep a company together to better protect the property.

In conclusion, allow me to say that not one-half of the professional and business men of this town were represented at the entertainment given; neither themselves or members of their families. On the entertainment given the Fire Company finds itself over $40.00 short of meeting expenses, or by actual count there was an attendance of 157 people. If the succeeding numbers of the course are not received with double the patronage accorded the one given Monday night, we very much fear it will mean the permanent disbandment of the Cresson Volunteer Fire Company, in so far as an organization for your safety and that of your property.

The above is written for your serious thought and with a hope that one and all will rally to the support of this most excellent cause in its now apparently darkest hour.

Yours truly,

A FIREMEN'S FRIEND.

THE CRESSON

CRESSON, CAMBRIA COUNTY, PA., FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1911

A Property Holder on Needs of Fire Co.

Points Out Duty of Citizens And Tells How to Aid a Worthy Cause

Cresson, Pa., Jan. 31, 1911.

To the Editor of The Cresson Record:

With your permission, I would be pleased to have you place this in your paper, in order that we might be able to have the property holders and citizens of Cresson fully realize what they can do towards the existence of a fire company in this borough.

Some two years ago there was an effort made to organize a fire company in Cresson, for the sole purpose of protecting property and lives which might be jeopardized through fires, unavoidable and beyond control. After the organizing of the company, it became necessary to buy a fire-fighting equipment. The fire boys took upon themselves the responsibility of purchasing 500 feet of hose to be used in fire fighting. After the purchase of this hose they discovered that they still did not have the necessary equipment for handling fires in a speedy way, they again assumed a greater responsibility by purchasing a chemical wagon. This chemical wagon cost the company $950. The cost of this truck should not be taken in consideration if we compare it with the efficiency in which a fire can be handled with it. This truck can be used to a very great advantage in fighting fires, as the hose can be taken into a room and the chemicals applied without doing much damage as flooding the property with water, which in the majority of cases a hose usually does in order to get control of a small fire. With the above mentioned apparatus the fire company is still lacking the amount of hose to fight a fire which would be at any great distance from a fire plug. The purchase of this hose will necessitate another outlay in addition to the $1,450 already spent. The object of this is to show the public what the fire company has already accomplished, and still more what is needed to

Thanks to Andrew Carnegie

A resolution was introduced in the senate, by Senator Wertz, extending the thanks of the legislature for the grounds upon which is to be built the sanatorium. It was adopted by both branches. It might have been well to have named the sanatorium Summit Sanatorium or Carnegie Sanatorium. The people of Cresson don't just exactly like the idea of associating the name "Cresson" with the sanatorium, for the reason that when they are away from home and are asked their residence, which is given Cresson, the person inquiring naturally associates them with the institution and wonder if they are infected with the disease the sanatorium is built to cure, and consequently would have a tendency to cause people to shun them.

Mr. Carnegie Gives Another Tract

ADJOINS THAT PREVIOUSLY DONATED BY HIM TO THE STATE.

A second tract of land has been added to that on which the state is building an sanitorium at the Summit. State Health Commissioner Dixon made it known Saturday that Mr. Carnegie had donated the land to the state. The tract adjoins that on which the sanitorium is being constructed, which was also donated to the state by Mr. Carnegie. As soon as the weather permits the work on the sanitorium hospitals will be pushed to a rapid completion, and when completed will aid greatly in the work which the state is doing for the consumptive poor at the Mont Alto institution.

GREAT VOTING CONTEST

Cresson Record's Prizes The A Great Opportunity For Win Most Beautiful Prize

The Record contest has hardly opened. In fact it may be said that the Record contest will not be opened in real earnest until the people become acquainted with the beautiful prizes that have been offered. If the readers of our paper would visit the old First National bank rooms they certainly would be astonished at the richness of the gifts. The magnificent furniture, clock and pianos, as they are shown in this room, will certainly cause a number of people to feel that they are worth while winning. The good things in life are never gotten easily. It requires a little work. Think of it! You enter the contest, spend an hour each day seeing your friends and neighbors and ask them for their support, and in turn to get the support of their friends for you. In a very short time you will find your votes increasing rapidly. Your chances brighten, and the winning of the prize then becomes a real thing to you. Go where you will, ask any furniture dealer or piano dealer and they will tell you that it is worth the time spent to make the attempt. This contest will last for twelve weeks, and in these twelve weeks you secure a piano costing $350, a piano of exactly the same make and quality which was recently sold to the Johnstown Baseball association for $400. Just imagine! You are getting this piano, costing $350, for three months work—giving but a few hours of each day to this work. We will give in our paper an exact illustration of these beautiful Price & Teeple pianos, so that those who are unable to visit the display rooms will get an idea of the magnificent offer we are making; or, if you are in Johnstown and would call on W. CRESSON SANITORIUM CONDEMNED

Dr. Lawrence Flick, World's Famous Consumptive Specialist, Disapproves Dr. Dixon's Plans

Dr. Flick has passed judgment on the crusade of the state of Pennsylvania against consumption in a letter written to each member of the legislature. It is a strong, forceful, document and unless answered in an unmistakable way by Dr. Dixon will mean much in controlling the legislature on important bills looking toward the building of a sanatorium at Cresson. Dr. Flick says in part:

"In 1907 the Mont Alto camp, which had been conducted as a sanatorium by Doctor B. H. Brock, was taken over by the department of health and developed into a state sanatorium. This has been brought up to a capacity of upwards of 700 beds. In its development, all that the world holds correct in the establishment of sanatoria has been disregarded, with the result that the commonwealth has a clumsily gotten up institution in which the curative discipline necessary for good work in the treatment and prevention of tuberculosis is practically impossible. The institution is located in an accessible place to which every thing has to be hauled over two railroads and from the railroad station over a rough mountain road for a distance of about four miles. Foreign born unnaturalized residents of Pennsylvania and the families of such residents have been excluded from Mont Alto Sanatorium. They constitute one of the chief sources of danger from tuberculosis.

"Out of the appropriation of 1909 two additional sanatoria have been projected, one at Cresson, Pa., and the other at Hamburg, Pa. These are presumably upon the same plans as the Mont Alto Sanatorium. The establishment of these two additional sanatoria by the commonwealth is an unnecessary outlay of money.

Compared with Private Work. "Some idea of the relative economy of the work done by private corporations and that done by the state may be obtained from a comparison of work accomplished by the two agencies and its cost. The private corporations of Pennsylvania have, up to the present time, expended about $2,000,000 in the campaign against tuberculosis. With this they have established about 600 beds, have treated over 18,000 patients in beds and over 30,000 in dispensaries. The department of health has had available $3,000,000, has established upward of 700 beds, has treated 4,446 patients in beds and 38,927 in dispensaries. So far the city of Philadelphia has, independently of the other two agencies, expended about $800,000, has established about 400 beds and has treated about 10,000 patients in beds."

He criticises the methods pursued by the department in carrying out this policy, and points out what he considers to be the proper shape for the campaign to take.
