It is rumored that a general strike all over the county in the mines of the affected company will be declared soon, but this has been emphatically denied by both men and officials.

Cemetery
Is Being Improved

The movement for the betterment of the old Union graveyard at the Summit has progressed to the point where actual work is being done at the once-pretty cemetery. Under the able direction of A. H. Beard, a fine fence, similar to the one being built around the state tuberculosis sanatorium, is being erected around the plot. The posts have already been set and the wire ordered. The locust trees in the graveyard have been cut down and the trunks used for fence posts. Mr. Beard has mapped out and laid out in plots the newer portions of the cemetery. Gallitzin and Lilly people are taking an active interest in the movement and Cresson will, within the next year, be in possession of one of the prettiest cemeteries in this section of the state.

Contributions have been pouring in generously. About $62 has been collected. More is needed as the improvements under way will aggregate in cost about $150.

The following have donated:—Mrs. Christina Brown, Cresson, $10; Blair Seeds, Cresson, $6; J. E. Lowry, Lilly, $5; P. M. George, Lilly, $5; Garrett Seese, Lilly, $5; Mrs. William Stahley, Lilly, $5; Mrs. J. F. Klemstine, Lilly, $5; F. F. George, Lilly, $3; Mrs. William Williamson, Cresson, $2; Dr. H. T. The big iron gates, donated by Blair Seeds, have arrived from the factory and will be put in place within the next week.

The following will receive donations for the cemetery fund: Miss Nichols of Gallitzin, J. E. Lowry of Lilly and C. A. Cunningham, A. L. Wylie and Charles Judge of Cresson.

It is reasonable to presume that several of the leading stars developed cases of bronchitis or some such "hifalutin" disorder and just could not appear. At any rate, Cresson will be given a rare privilege next Tuesday night. It costs fifty cents to see it.

Invading Electric Concern Is Busy

The Penn Central Light & Power company, the big concern which is invading the entire north of the county, Cresson included, has several forces of men working on its line, which passes through Tunnellhill, Summit and Lilly and thence on through to Willmore. Holes are being dug for the big poles and the work of stringing the wires is said to have already started.

About 30 Johnstown ladies, most of whom were members of Branch No. 340, L. C. B. A., of Johnstown visited the orphanage at the Summit recently and spent several hours there. They were entertained for a time in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Luther of Upper Keystone avenue, a tempting dinner being served there. At the orphanage, the visitors treated the children royally, giving them candy and many things dear to the hearts of the little ones. They attended a service of benediction in the church. Before their return the sisters in charge at the orphanage served a light lunch.

Johnstown To Help Cresson

Flood City Men Enthused With Penitentiary Scheme

That Johnstown will lend its hearty support to the movement toward the establishment of the state penitentiary in Cresson, was evidenced last Wednesday night at a regular meeting of the Johnstown Chamber of Commerce, which was attended by a number of representatives of the Cresson board. In the visiting party were the Messrs. Blair Seeds, D. E. Brown, W. Cunningham, H. A. Underwood, J. G. Connell, W. L. Hibbs and J. H. McCann, all of Cresson, and Deputy Factory Inspector McCann of Lilly and T. A. Stead of Lilly. The Cresson members were satisfied with the treatment accorded them in the Flood City and seem to think that the interested men in Johnstown will take the question up in an active and forceful manner, which, coupled with the local aid, might land the "pen" for Cresson.

Next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock the Cresson Board of Trade will convene in an important special session, called at the instance of President John McCann. The meeting will be called to order promptly at 8 o'clock in the Odd Fellows' hall. All interested parties are urged to attend. Several matters of the utmost importance will be taken up for deliberation and a large attendance is desired.

Good work has been done on the cemetery by A. J. Beard and others helping him. The plots have been laid out and mapped and the fence practically completed. In the spring the actual cleaning out of the place will be started.

Seniors In Public Debate

For the purpose of raising funds for the improvement and enlargement of their school library, the Seniors of the Cresson High school will hold a public debate the evening of Dec. 21, in Bucks opera house. They will discuss from every angle the much-debated question. Has ambition done more good than evil?

School Board Elects

F. M. Snyder Chosen Head Of Reorganized Directors

The new Cresson school board met last Monday evening in the school building and elected Frank M. Snyder president. The meeting was a short one, no attempt being made to transact any routine business. Daniel Kearn was chosen secretary and Luke Ivory was elected treasurer. Although one of the retiring members, it was deemed best to retain Mr. Ivory's valuable services as treasurer of the board.

After hearing Prof. F. B. Ott's report, the board adjourned to next Monday evening, when work of a more detailed nature will be taken up.

McClement A Popular Candidate

In a statement recently made public, Thomas McClement of Dunlap announces his candidacy for the position on the National Board of the United Mine Workers of America from District No. 2. The open letter to the members of the U. M. W. of A. in District No. 2 states that the writer, Mr. McClement, has been forced into the field, not through a natural desire for the honor the position carries with it, although he modestly announces that he would consider it the greatest honor that the miners of his district could confer upon him, but on account of an insistent demand upon him from all of the district.

This demand, the letter implies, takes the form of a protest against Christmas gift to this pretty little town from the Pennsylvania Coal company.

Record extends to its subscribers and advertisers a Christmas, a Happy New Year of them. The prospects of the year are sufficient to justify saying it will be a prosperous one wishing for it. It will come after of course and fact. It is as if it can not be other-ding to popular superstition, the year being Leap Year, the year is by four and having one more than the ordinary run of years. Spinsters in this great and country of ours will be privileged to propose, without compunction of conscience or fear of appearing too bold and forward to the world in view of the fact that the year seems to have its own way about things both during the year and the other three years, it seems the logical thing to set it apart as a year of rest for bachelors. A year of rest, let it be which ever poor, down-the bachelor will be given full opportunity to pursue his own vocation without fear of headlong into the matrimonial net or putting himself in line for a promise suit, the direct of the wives of some fair daughters.

Record joins with every man, and child in Cresson in extending the hand of friendship and welcome to the retiring members of the Record. There can be nothing said that would be derogatory of their actions, so far as the matter is considered the retiring president, R. D. King, said, "We may have made mistakes, but they were not intentional." The Record believes that if mistakes were made, they were committed because they were committed; they were certain of their being right in their course. The retiring council has done much good for Cresson borough, their tenure of office, they at the borough on a basis with other boroughs, so recent-ly incorporated, can boast. Through their influence the sidewalks have been paved with fine concrete pavement, there is scarcely a block of dirt in the entire borough, yet has been paved and turpentine holes, lined with an un-pleasantness, into a thoroughfare of Cresson, can well be proud. The streets have been put in and except in the very

the latter part of last week, the Miller vein, the big vein below the Lemon seam, worked under the old regime, was reached. A company has been deepening the shaft for the past two or three months; it being necessary to dig straight down the distance of 210 feet to reach the Miller coal.

It will require at least six months to fully develop the new coal, as headings will be driven, a pump house cut out of the rock and coal and other mine details worked out, which will take fully the better part of six or seven months. It is hoped by that time to put the mine working at capacity, with coal being taken from both seams, the Lemon and the Miller.

The coal from the Miller vein is said to be a very desirable quality, possessing excellent steaming qualities. When both seams are working at capacity, employment will be given to between 250 and 300 miners and the mine will have a daily output of about 1,200 tons.

An up-to-date fan and fan house are now being erected at the mine entrance. Everything will be of concrete, to avoid against a second fire. The fan is of the most approved pattern. Two cages will be used in the shaft proper, making it possible to serve each level independent of the other.

Summit Job Is Rushed

Contracts will be let next spring for the biggest part of the job at the new state sanatorium now under course of construction at the Summit. The big sewerage incineration plant, the cottages, roads, barns, bath-houses and a church will be let out by contract. In the neighborhood of $1,000,000 will be spent by the state on the institution which, when finished, will be one of the most complete of its kind in the world.

The Woodman Lumber company of Cresson, which has the contract for the erection of the ward, executive and power buildings, is rushing work on their end of the job. More than 200 actual working days have already been spent on the job, which, at that, will not be completed until late next spring.

It is probable that work on the interior of the structures will be done throughout the winter, unless the weather becomes too severe.

The St. Francis Xavier church picnic and dinner given here yesterday met with the usual success of these annual events. Hundreds of people enjoyed the dinner and supper served by the ladies, while young and old alike seemed to thoroughly enjoy the dancing and other festivities. Owing to the cool weather the picnic festivities were conducted in the Cresson Theatre, instead of in the grove as was announced.

FORMER CRESSON WOMAN DIES IN PHILA. HOSPITAL.

Mrs. Clarence E. Shaffer of Windber, a former resident of this place, died Tuesday evening in the Howard hospital in Philadelphia, after an operation. The remains were removed to Windber Wednesday evening and funeral services were conducted at her late home last evening at 8 o'clock. The body was removed to Phillipsburg this morning for interment. It will be remembered by Cresson residents that Mr. Clarence Shaffer, husband of the deceased, was employed here some years ago as manager of the local drug store.

Workmen have been busy for the past several days in getting the ground between the railroad and First street in shape for planting grass, flowers and shrubbery.

together with the cool and threatening weather of yesterday, made the conditions very unfavorable, especially so for the children.

Sanitarium to Receive Patients in September

The new Cresson State Tuberculosis Sanitarium now in course of construction, will probably be turned over to the State late in the summer and it is expected that everything will be in readiness to receive patients about the middle of September. Dr. Samuel G. Dixon, Commissioner of Health, made an inspection last week of the buildings already erected and expressed himself as well pleased with the progress which has been made. This new institution is expected to duplicate the excellent results which have been obtained at the State South Mountain Sanitarium at Mont Alto.

The main structures include an administration, dining room and ward buildings. The cottages, for which a contract has just been let, will bring the capacity of the Sanitarium up to 320 beds. This number will eventually be increased to 1,000, the bed capacity at Mont Alto.

Architecturally the buildings are handsome in design, although no utilitarian feature has been neglected. The English half-timbered effect chosen gives an opportunity for the use of the beautiful reddish brown building stone which abounds on the State property. This, in connection with the asbestos roofing and paneling, comprises a most attractive color scheme. The buildings are so located that each and every part obtains the maximum amount of sunlight and air.

The altitude of Cresson is 2,550 feet, which will make it the highest inhabited point in the State. This elevation and distance from the railroads and factories insures the purity of the air which is so essential to the satisfactory treatment of pulmonary tuberculosis.

The tract of land on which this Sanitarium stands comprises 500 acres, which was donated to the State for this purpose by Andrew Carnegie. One-third of this tract is covered with a magnificent hardwood forest of oak, hemlock and spruce, which affords an excellent protection for the buildings on the north and northwest. On the south and east, the land falls away affords a magnificent view of the adjoining country. It is said that the counties can be seen from this point.

The ground was originally purchased by Mr. Carnegie for a country seat, and on the very point which he had chosen for the site of his castle Dr. Dixon has located the State's new home for its poor consumptives.

and happier view of life's responsibilities.

The retreat this year will begin the evening of Tuesday, July 9, and close on the morning of Saturday, July 12. An able Jesuit Father from the New York province, will conduct the exercises.

Persons wishing to make this retreat can secure accommodation and obtain any further information they desire, by writing to the Sister of Mercy, Mount Alorjcius Academy, Cresson, Pa.

DRILLERS RESUME WORK.

The drillers who are boring the well for the local brewery resumed work the first of the week, after an absence of about ten days. They are now putting in casing or sections of pipe to a depth of about 550 feet, and after this has been done will drill the remaining distance of the well. The hole is now down 730 feet, with anywhere from 270 to 500 feet to go, although it is not probable that it will be necessary to drill more than 300 feet deeper than the present depth.

MENTCH-DAVIS WEDDING.

Miss Eleanor Mentch, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey E. Mentch of this place, and Alan B. Davis of Johnstown were united in marriage last Saturday evening at five o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, by the Rev. A. J. Whipkey, pastor of the local Presbyterian church. Miss Mary Mentch, sister of the bride, and Owen Davis, a brother of the groom, were the attendants. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served to the nuptial party, which included the immediate relatives and a few friends. The newly weds left here on train No. 10 that evening for New York city. From there they expected to go to Baltimore and other eastern cities. Upon their return they will make their home in Johnstown, where the groom is employed as manager of the Johnstown Baking company.

Both of the contracting parties are well known in musical circles in Cambria county and their many friends wish them much happiness in their wedded life.

GALLITZIN WEDDING.

Miss Myrtle Yeckley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Yeckley of Gallitzin, and Virgil Dixon of Pittsburg were united in marriage last Friday evening at the parsonage of St. Patrick's Catholic church at Gallitzin, by Rev. Father J. J. Deasy. Miss Irene Hancock and Mr. Britewater were the attendants. Mr. and Mrs. Dixon left this week for Colorado, where they will make their future home.

DEATH OF "BOB" MURPHY

Former Lieutenant Governor and Long Time Resident of This County

Philadelphia, June 24. — Former Lieut. Gov. Robert S. Murphy, one of the best known men in the State, died suddenly tonight at his home in Segerwood road, Overbrook, of apoplexy. He was seized suddenly, and died before his physician, who lived nearby, could reach his side. His wife was with him.

Mr. Murphy, described by former Governor Stuart, with whom he served in the executive offices in Harrisburg, as "one of the best liked men in the State," had been feeling ill all day and did not visit his office. He was not sick in bed, and remained around the house all day. Just before dinner he was seized, and died at 5:30 o'clock.

Former Governor Stuart was one of the first to visit the house on learning of Mr. Murphy's death. Col. Thomas Edwin Murphy, his brother, who also lives in Overbrook, is on his way home from Chicago, where he attended the Republican National Convention. Efforts were made to reach him tonight on the train. No arrangements will be made for the funeral until the arrival of Colonel Murphy.

Besides his widow Mr. Murphy is survived by three brothers—Col. Thomas Edward Murphy of Philadelphia, on the staff of Governor Tener; John Francis Murphy of St. Louis and Francis Murphy of Los Angeles, Cal.

Mr. Murphy's wife was Ella Findlay Maclay Fritz of Johnstown, and she survives him. Mr. Murphy's family, the Findlays, was an old and noted one in the history of Western Pennsylvania. Mrs. Murphy's grandfather, Colonel Findlay was also

BIG CONTRACT TO BE AWARDED TOMORROW

Four Companies Have Submitted Bids on Heating Apparatus at Sanatorium

The contract for the construction of the heating apparatus for the new State sanatorium will be awarded tomorrow, according to those in charge of the bids. Figures have been submitted by four companies to date. The contract is one of the biggest in the whole sanatorium job and represents several months' work. Thousands of feet of pipe, expensive boilers and other fixtures will be necessary and the contract will specify that everything must be completed by the opening of the institution, some time in September.

With the awarding of the heating contract off their hands, the management of the new hospital will then turn to the letting of the water contract. This will also mean a big outlay of money.

The new hospital is being visited by a large number of sightseers. The work on the administration building is being rushed to the limit and will be completed within the next few days. Work on the cottages is also being pushed.

The Solomon Construction company, which has in charge the construction of the new sewage disposal plant, is doing its work without a hitch.

Those who have in charge the handling of the applications of prospective patients are having their hands full. Since early last spring inquiries regarding the admission of patients have come in by the hundreds and it is expected that the capacity of the new hospital will have been completely exhausted by the time for the opening.

The Eight Hour Law

Speech of Hon. Jesse L. Hartman, of Pennsylvania, in the House of Representatives, Thursday, December 14, 1911.

On the bill (H. R. 9661) limiting the hours of daily services of laborers and mechanics employed upon work done for the United States or for any Territory or for the District of Columbia, and for other purposes. Mr. Hartman said:

Mr. Speaker: I am heartily in favor of this bill and will vote for it with a great deal of pleasure. It has always been the proudest boast of Americans that in our great country the scale of living and opportunities for culture and improvement of the workingman were better than in any country in the world, and, there is nothing so conducive to such self-improvement as a working day short enough to leave the workingman time for proper relaxation and intelligent application.

In many branches of industry it has been fully demonstrated that the eight-hour day is a profitable adjustment of time, as it increases the capacity of the workman by allowing more time for rest and recuperation.

It is above all important that in its treatment of labor the Government should set an example of generosity, humanity, and that as it is extended that all who work for the Government shall give the best service they can, so the Government in return should certainly give its employe the best and every capacity the best treatment.

Any legislation for the betterment of labor in any way is good Republicanism, as the history of legislation in both National and State legislative bodies will and it is therefore a pleasure as a duty to support this both as a man with long intimate association with labor sympathy with the workingmen's struggle for betterment and as a man who is in accord with a past record on labor ques-

CRESSON RESIDENT CAPTURES PRIZE AT HAGERSTOWN FAIR

B. W. HARDING'S ROSE COMB RHODE ISLAND RED TAKES SECOND MONEY.

Cresson has received a portion of the honors from the great Hagerstown fair held last week at Hagerstown, Md. B. W. Harding, assistant cashier in the local bank, and a successful and thorough chicken fancier, entered his favorite Rose Comb Rhode Island Red (cockrel) at the Hagerstown fair and the bird won second prize. The entry was made for Mr. Harding by the local agent for the Union News company, Fred J. Kammerer, who is a native of Hagerstown.

The great Hagerstown fair is one of the most popular annual meets of its kind in the United States. The poultry building at this fair is of international reputation and is one of the finest and largest in the world. It is therefore no small distinction to the owner of the bird that captures second honors at the Hagerstown exhibit.

Was Scheduled for This Court, But Will Be Heard in Johnstown.

Argument in the case of County Controller Curtis G. Campbell vs. the county of Cambria was to have been made at this term of Argument court, but Judge Stephens made the announcement Wednesday morning that the matter will not be heard until later this week or some time next week, in Johnstown. The hearing will be to determine whether to dissolve or make permanent the injunction secured by County Controller Campbell against the county commissioners restraining the latter from proceeding with the erection of an insane asylum.

An interesting case argued Wednesday morning before Judge Stephens was that of Edward H. Lytle vs. Lester Larimer, treasurer of Cambria county. Mr. Lytle claims he owns an interest in a tract of land and that he wanted to pay his proportionate share of taxes. When he went to Larimer to pay his share, he was told that nothing was assessed against him, that the county had purchased the tract. Mr. Lytle then instituted mandamus proceedings to compel the treasurer to accept his proportionate share of taxes.

NEW PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

A committee of the Blairsville Presbytery last Friday evening went to Colver, the new coal mining town in this county, and on Saturday organized a Presbyterian Church at that place. In the committee were the Rev. C. C. Hays, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Johnstown; the Rev. Dr. A. H. Jolly, in charge of mission work and church extension in the Presbytery; the Rev. S. A. Taggart, pastor of the Ebensburg Presbyterian Church; F. R. Barker and Thomas Evans of Ebensburg and Henry Taylor of Cresson. These trustees were elected: Eli Jones, Evan Griffith, M. Day Kirk, Alexander L. Black, Don G. Mahaffey and B. F. Smith. The organization will be completed in the near future and steps are to be taken at once to secure a resident pastor, who will also have charge of the Welsh Congregational and Welsh Calvinistic Methodist churches, near the town. The new church has the backing of the Ebensburg Coal Company, which is opening the workings at Colver.

One week from today the season for the hunting of small game, including rabbits, pheasants, squirrels and wild turkeys, will open.

Young Man Gets Heavy Fine and is Held for Court on Serious Charge

Warren Melhorn, son of J. W. Melhorn of Sankertown, was sentenced to a fine of $50.00 and costs aggregating $62.89 after hearings upon two separate charges before Squire T. W. Letts Monday of this week. The man was also held for trial at county court upon a charge of carrying concealed weapons.

Information was first made against Melhorn on October 19th, by J. H. Brubaker, a game warden, Allegheny township, charging Melhorn with trying to start a fight, hitting bystander, disorderly conduct, using profane and indecent language.

When finally brought before Squire Letts Monday, young Melhorn pleaded guilty to this charge and was fined $5.00 and costs, the remaining total fines to $24.49.

Second information was made against this same defendant on January 10th by Constable W. J. Brolley, charging him with stealing a horse and buggy from A. C. Shettig, a liveryman, and promised to return it with the livery outfit the same day.

After a drive to the vicinity of the State Sanatorium, he failed to return it that evening and the next day Homer Shettig, son of the liveryman, went in search and found Melhorn in charge of a man who was driving the horse to the State Sanatorium. The buggy was later found, badly damaged, and it was also learned that Melhorn had been shot behind the ear.

Melhorn had disappeared and his whereabouts were not known for some time. He was captured and taken before Squire Letts Monday of this week. After hearing on the second charge, Melhorn was acquitted upon the charge of carrying but convicted of carrying concealed weapons, and this being the final conviction of the defendant on the same charge, the fine was $30.00, and the costs the total fine to $62.89.

APPROPRIATION COMMITTEE VISITS THE SANATORIUM

State Health Commissioner Dixon and Members of Legislature Here Yesterday

State Health Commissioner Dr. Samuel G. Dixon and the members of the State Legislature that compose the appropriation committee arrived here yesterday evening on Train No. 25 from Harrisburg. Two automobiles and about seven carriages conveyed the party to the Sanatorium near here. Dinner was prepared for them at the new institution and a brief inspection was made of the buildings and the manner in which the institution is conducted. The purpose of the visit by the members of the Legislature was to investigate and report at the present session of the Legislature at Harrisburg upon the advisability of an appropriation by the State for the required money to erect the proposed west wing to the new institution.

Following their investigation here the members of the Legislature left on Train No. 1 for Pittsburg, where they will visit a number of hospitals that have asked the State for appropriations for improvements and other maintenance.

WEARING OF MUFFLERS DANGEROUS TO TRACKMEN

As an instance of the small details of which it is necessary for the management of a railroad to take care in providing for the safety of their men, the following circular has just been sent out by the General Manager of the Pennsylvania Railroad to all the officers having in charge men working on the tracks:

"The wearing of ear muffers by trackmen renders their hearing less acute while being worn, and while it is not desirable to prohibit the practice of wearing muffers, foremen should be warned to pay particular attention to the men who wear them, in regard to warning the men of approaching trains, and all foremen should be advised of this at once."

TUNNELHILL WOMAN,
MOTHER OF 22, DIES.

Mrs. Julia Risbin McCloskey of Gallitzin, mother of 22 children, 13 of whom are still alive, died at her home in Tunnelhill last Sunday morning, of infirmities due to age. She was about 78 years old, and was born in Ireland. For years, she had been a resident of the mountain town. She was a member of St. Patrick's Catholic church, and was the widow of Thomas William McCloskey, who died about a decade ago.

Among the survivors are: A daughter, Mrs. Clara Correll, wife of Roland C. Correll, the Juniata real estate agent; a son, Leo McCloskey, of Juniata; two brothers, Peter Risbin, a retired Pennsylvania Railroad employe, of Altoona, and Thomas of Johnstown; three sisters, Mrs. Thomas McCloskey of Hollidaysburg, Mrs. R. N. Martin of Renovo and Mrs. William Watkins of Panama.

Mrs. McCloskey and her sister in Hollidaysburg married men of the same name.

PEOPLE'S GAS COMPANY
AFTER CARROLLTOWNERS.

Overtures have been made by the People's Gas Company to the Carrolltown Gas company for the purchase of the property owned by the North Cambrians, according to a report now in circulation. There has been a rumor current for some time past that the People's Company would soon make a move to come into the north of the county and it is believed that this is the first step in that direction. The Carrolltown Gas company is willing to sell out, they declare, but the People's Gas Company will have to pay the price for everything they buy. There are many people in this section who believe that the Carrolltown and the People's companies will never come to terms. The Carrolltown Gas company has been a money-maker from the start and the stockholders are expecting still better things. A big tract of land is owned by the company and there are several good wells in use. It is thought that the supply will be good for some years to come.

However, on the other hand the People's Gas Company is anxious to get into the Carrolltown field and it is understood that some tempting offers have been made already.

Ebensburg last Saturday, concluded their long and hot session with the representatives of the coal owners and operators, it was agreed that the operators shall make their answer to the commissioners on March 26, or sooner. There were but few appeals of any kind last Monday and it is expected that the big rush is over. The commissioners are anxious to get the assessment transcripts into the hands of the district authorities.

It was Attorney P. J. Little who on Saturday held up the warmest end of the argument for the operators, in which the commissioners denied that coal assessments, in many districts, are nearer full value than the assessments on other classes of taxable property. Mr. Little said he could show the commissioners numerous instances where they had placed valuations on surface lands at not more than two-thirds of their market value.

NEW WALKS AT SANATORIUM.

PATIENTS ARE NOW PERMITTED TO STROLL ABOUT WOODLAND.

Concrete walks and driveways are to be laid about the grounds surrounding the Sanatorium. Work is to begin at once and will be pushed. The grounds are in a muddy condition just now and the patients are able to get but little exercise. The authorities would like to have the patients who are able ramble in the surrounding woodland and when the walks have been constructed the grounds at the hospital will afford an ideal place for such exercise.

Flower beds are also to be planted this year, and the grounds will be beautified in other ways. Later benches will be placed at various points and the grounds will be transformed into a park.

The first of the big army of hens has arrived and more are expected toward the end of the month. It is expected that in the neighborhood of 4,000 will be kept to furnish eggs for the Sanatorium kitchen.

MEN LAYING BASE OF EBENSBURG MONUMENT.

All the marble for the 'Soldiers' Memorial monument, to be erected on the plaza on Centre street, Ebensburg, is either on the ground or in the cars on the way to Ebensburg. A force of men under the direction of O. E. Wilkinson is now laying the large base for the monument and from all indications the pile will be in readiness for unveiling on Memorial day.

The county commissioners at a meeting to be held within a day or so will order work begun on the transformation of the once weed-grown plaza into a real park.

Potted Easter Flowers.

The advance sale for the special engagement of Klaw & Erlanger's musical comedy de luxe, "The Pink Lady," at the Mishler Theatre, Altoona, for Tuesday evening and Wednesday matinee and evening, March 25 and 26, will open at the box office of that playhouse on Saturday morning, March 23, at 9 o'clock. Owing to the heavy demand that will come up Manager Mishler has made arrangements to receive mail orders accompanied by check or money order, and file them in the order of their receipt. There will be an augmented force in the box office to handle the advance sale, so that this detail of the rush can also be attended to with expedition.

"The Pink Lady" is the musical comedy sensation of the decade and its coming to the Mishler Theatre at this time will introduce the production of this wonderful success in every detail that made it so popular during the year's run of the piece in New York City.

Fraud Paint

The worst mistake one is likely to make in painting is wrong paint; it is easy to make.

We all say "Ours is the best"; and there are 100 of us. One is best; but a dozen are so near on a level that no-one knows, for sure, that he is the one.

The worst paints are worst here; they know what they are, and have a bold face, and brazen tongue.

Their one true argument is low price; but low-price paint is always, must be, a fraud; it is made to cheat cheatable people.

Accordingly a number of prop- erty owners of upper Keystone ave- nue appeared before Council Monday night with a petition asking Council to complete the resolution. The peti- tioners further stated that, unless Council forced the construction of the sidewalks, the petitioners would bring suit against Council for negli- gence in the performance of their du- ties.

Notices are now being sent to the property owners who have not laid walks and it is likely that some hust- ling will be done. A number of prop- erty owners have already begun pre- parations for laying walks before Council takes action.

DISCIPLINE AT SANATORIUM

Routine for Each Day Must Be Carried Out to the Letter

Few people are aware of the strict adherence to rules and regulations that is required of patients in the tuberculosis sanatoriums of the state. "Exactness and regularity," one authority has explained, "means everything in the treatment of the disease and without obeying the laws that are laid down by the health department, treatment avails nothing." No person is permitted to remain as a patient in any of the institutions who is not willing to submit to all the rules. The same routine is carried out day after day and week after week. Early to rise and early to bed is one of the first requirements and one of the rules most rebelled against. Others equally as rigid are enforced with less difficulty. Dr. Turnbull of the state sanatorium here is just completing a set of regulations by which the patients in the new institution will be treated.

At the local sanatorium, as in many of the other state hospitals for tuberculosis, the patient must be dressed and bathed by 6:30 or 6:45 at the latest. That is, of course, those patients who are able to be about and to take the regular course of treatment. Breakfast is served in the dining room at 7 o'clock.

Two Long Rest Periods

The patient is awakened by a large

Comfort Your Stomach

We pay for this treatment if it fails to promptly relieve Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

Raxall Dyspepsia Tablets remedy stomach troubles because they contain the proper proportion of Pepsin and Bismuth and the necessary carminatives that help nature to supply the elements that the absence of which in the gastric juices causes indigestion and dyspepsia. They aid the stomach to digest food and to quickly convert it into rich red blood and material necessary for overcoming bell which can be heard in all parts of the sanatorium. Following breakfast the patients are put to light work, such as folding napkins, arranging beds and furniture and the like. They are required to take at least one solid hour's rest. One pint of milk is served as a lunch just about 11 o'clock and the patient is at his leisure until dinner is served at noon.

After noon he rests from one hour to one and a half hours. Following this he is again given a pint of milk. Then he enjoys several hours recreation. He is permitted to walk about the grounds, write letters, read or indulge in light exercise. Supper follows at 5:30 o'clock and another pint of milk is served at 7:30 o'clock. At 8 o'clock all the patients must retire for the night.

Up until about six months ago it was the custom to feed the patients eggs with the milk lunches, but this has been dispensed with. Many eggs, however, are used in the cooking and over 5,000 hens will be kept at the local institution to furnish eggs for the patients.

Homesickness is one danger which has to be fought. Some patients, longing for their homes and friends, become despondent. They handicap their own chances of recovery by working against the treatment through worry. "Worry," one of the officials explained, "is sure to bring about nervous diseases which make the cure of tuberculosis an impossibility."

A rule has been laid down that any patient who becomes "homesick" or despondent and who leaves the institution can never be admitted to the institution again.

It is expected that all of the 20 cottages will be opened this month. Each of the cottages is of four rooms and each room will accommodate two patients.

The children's ward is filling up rapidly. Every effort is being made to furnish amusement for the little ones and games and books and other things for their entertainment have been supplied. Dr. Turnbull and his staff would appreciate any donation of toys, games or books.

Wait Paint

There are painters and waiters. Which am I going to do? Paint or wait?

Which is better? How much am I worth with my property waiting? How much if I paint? Will my house be worth more or less if I paint?

Say it costs $2.00 a gallon Devoe—I wouldn't use any other—and $3 or $4 more for putting it on. That's $50 or $60 a 10-gallon job.

The money is gone. Is it in the house? Is it all in the house?
