EXTENSION OF 'SUN TREATMENT' FOR PATIENTS AT SANATORIUM

State Health Body Asks for Bids on Large Solaria—Bed Patients Will be Aided by Move—About 700 Persons Now at the Mountain-Top Institution

The following announcement was made this week by the state health department at Harrisburg:

"The state department of health is receiving bids for the construction of open and glass-enclosed solaria, which will be built as an extension to the east ward of the Cresson State Tuberculosis sanatorium.

"Col. John D. McLean, deputy commissioner of healths says: 'Sun treatment of glandular and bone tuberculosis has been satisfactorily tested in various sanatoria by specialists who have devoted a lifetime to the study of this disease. It is not claimed that sun treatment is a cure for pulmonary tuberculosis, but it does take a very important place as one of the vital elements of body building."

"The solaria will have a total floor area of 3,545 square feet, with 1,755 square feet of open porch and the rest glass-enclosed. Each of the 700 patients at the Cresson sanatorium will have the advantage of sun treatment at regulated periods. The building will have a total glass area of 1150 square feet and is to be so constructed as to get the maximum amount of sunshine. The native stone facing the solaria will be taken from the mountain within a few hundred feet to the main building at Cresson.

"This addition to sanatoria facilities is more than justified if, by the aid of sun treatment, patients can be returned to an active citizenship in a shorter time than heretofore, thus making it possible for the state sanatoria to care for a greater number of persons in a given period of time."

"Sun Treatment" for Everybody

Queried about the above announcement, Dr. Turnbull, superintendent of the Cresson sanatorium, said the solar, or sun parlors, would make possible an extension of the "sun treatment" to bed patients without hauling them into or across the lawn.

"We have been gradually increasing the sun treatment of patients here during the last two years," said Dr.

"Sun Treatment" for Everybody
 Queried about the above announcement, Dr. Turnbull, superintendent of the Cresson sanatorium, said the solar, or sun parlors, would make possible an extension of the "sun treatment" to bed patients without hauling them into or across the lawn.
 "We have been gradually increasing the sun treatment of patients here during the last two years," said Dr. Turnbull. "All through the summer we have had boys in bathing suits taking the cure on the lawn. More recently we have had one-piece suits made for the girls and have given them the benefits of the sun cure."
 "This sun cure for various ailments and diseases is gradually becoming more widespread, as a result of thousands of cases tested. The city of New York has shown in recent publications from its health department that many cases of rickets and scurvy in children have been completely cured by sun treatment, without giving them a drop of medicine."
 "The city of Buffalo uses the sun treatment very largely in its hospital at Perryburg for tubercular patients, the institution located about 40 miles from the city. Excellent results have been obtained there. So we are only keeping in touch with the experimental wisdom of the times when we turn more and more to solar heat for cures and beneficial results in our sanatorium."
 "The sun parlors will be built on the south end of our oldest building, known as the east ward. The sun parlor on the first floor will extend out about 45 feet, while the one above will extend 35 to 40 feet. The extra space on the second floor will be used as a porch. The sun parlors will make it possible for us to expose patients to sun treatment throughout the winter. We expect the sun parlors to produce marked improvement in many of our patients, some of whom are in advanced stages."
 "Sun treatment" is practiced often by persons who know little or nothing about medicine. This writer knows of a man who is subject to the ailment known as "summer complaint" during the hot months. This man, living out where such exposure would not excite comment, invariably cures his ailment by lying on a back porch with his abdomen exposed to the action of the sun's rays. Two or three hours of this heating exposure, the man has said repeatedly, has always resulted in a complete cure and improved health for some time afterward.

 Mr. and Mrs. Farren Have Close Call in Accident Near South Fork

South Fork, Aug. 28.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Farren and little son had a narrow escape from death last evening when the touring car in which they were riding was struck by a car driven by a party of alleged joyriders and thrown from the road.
 The accident happened on the Salix Lovett road near Salix about 9 o'clock in the evening. Mr. Farren was driving at a speed of about 20 miles per hour when the other car, it is alleged, running without lights and at a high rate of speed, came from the opposite direction. Before he could reach the side of the road the lightless car struck his machine fairly and turned it from the road, where it collided with a tree. Mr. Farren was thrown against the steering wheel, the force being so great that the steering post was badly bent. Mrs. Farren was thrown against the windshield, sustaining several lacerations, and was painfully bruised. Their son was riding in the rear seat and was not injured. In the meantime the joyriders continued on their way and several other cars had narrow escapes.
 The Farrens were brought to South Fork, and Mr. Farren, with several friends, returned to the wrecked car to remove its fittings. It was a new machine and had been in service only two months. When the party arrived at the scene of the wreck, they found that thieves had removed three of the tires and rims, the storage battery, cushions, curtains, globes from the dash, cowl and headlights, all of the tools and, in fact, everything that was movable. Police are working on the case and it is intimated that arrests will be made soon.

RED MEN'S PICNIC PROVES BIG E
 William Paul, of Cresson, Wins 50-Yard Dash

Red Men's day at Lakemont on Saturday proved to be one of the biggest outings of the season. Hundreds of the members and friends of the Improved Order of Red Men gathered for their annual outing. The sports program was open the morning at 10 o'clock with a ball game between picked teams from Hollidaysburg and Duncanville. The score ended 6 to 4 in favor of Altoona warriors.
 The usual feast on roast was enjoyed at the noon hour and the afternoon, beginning at 3:30, a sham battle was staged back in the park in which ex-service men, members of the order, participated. The exhibition was watched by those who were present.
 Other events on the program included:
 Men's 50-yard dash—W. H. Berger, pass case.
 Ladies' 50-yard dash—Miss Margaret, pocket book.
 Boys' 50-yard dash—William Berger, pocket knife.
 Girls' 50-yard dash—Anna Berger, parasol.
 Three legged race—W. H. Berger and W. H. Hippo, he barrel.
 Peanut scramble for the whole lot was much enjoyed, a half bushel of peanuts being used and all get their share.
 Many members of the local order were present and all report a very good time.
 A good many persons are worried about the hereafter who ought to be worrying about the here-present.

JOHNSTOWN BAND GIVES CONCERT AT SANATORIUM

The Eighth Ward band, of Johnstown, under the direction of George Friedel, and accompanied by officers and members of the Eighth Ward Musical Association, came here in automobiles Sunday and gave a concert at the Sanatorium.

The party arrived at about 4:30 p. m. and after playing several selections the members were guests of Medical Director and Mrs. W. G. Turnbull and Miss E. C. Allison, head nurse, at an impromptu reception. Light refreshments were served.

The band then played several additional selections and the party left for Johnstown at about 6:30 p. m. The autos which made the trip were owned by Paul Kent, Ralph Cooper, Alvin Sherbine, D. P. Welmer, M. J. Bracken, Robert Owens and Mr. Hammers.

A BLESSING IN DISGUISE

Mr. Hearley rubbed his hands gleefully. "Mr. Heaps!" he called.

Mr. Heape, his assistant, came in from the next room.

"Heaps," cried old Headley, "that fool of an office boy of ours has fallen in love with my pretty secretary."

"I'm sorry, sir; what shall I do? Fire the boy?"

"Fire the boy!" yelled Headley, "Never! I hope he remains true to her. From the first time since he's been here he's always handy when we want him."

Articles Made by Occupational Therapy
Classes of Patients Bring Good Prices—Patient Busy at Work.

The recent annual Christmas sale of articles such as basketware, leather goods, bead work, etc., fashioned by patients of the state sanatorium here, marked the opening of the fall and winter classes in occupational therapy at this institution. The sale was marked by good prices, the various articles being purchased by visitors and others who looked over the display in a room at the administration building. The work indicated ingenuity and industry of a high order. Occupational therapy is one of the important methods of treatment at the Cresson Sanatorium. Patients with plenty of time on their hands and who are in fair physical condition are given work to do—it is purely elective—and while thus busy they have less time for moody thoughts and worry over their own condition. The primary aim of this comparatively new method, aside from the development of skill of brain and hand, is this very objective of "taking the patient's mind away from himself."

In the basements of the east and west wings of the institution are the quarters of the "therapeutic shops." The former are for adults, the latter for children. The casual visitor to these scenes of industry during fall and winter is usually amazed at the skill displayed in making a hundred different sorts of things. There are all varieties of baskets, trays, glass holders, vases, etc., in red and raffia work, nicely painted or otherwise decorated. Knitting is in vogue to a great extent, sweaters, wristlets, mittens, gloves, hose, etc., being made by both men and women. Then there is a carpet weaving machine, which puts out a fine grade of rag carpet. Great care is exercised in manufacture, the instructors insisting upon a superior grade of work, believing in the old adage that what is worth doing at all is worth doing well. Provision is made whereby patients may keep for their own use such articles as they desire, after similar articles

Announcement was made by Bishop John J. McCort Friday of transfers of the clergy in the Altoona Diocese, one change to send the Rev. Patrick Harkin, chaplain of the State sanatorium and St. John orphanage at Cresson, to Altoona as assistant to Father James Egan, of St. Mark's Church.

Father Thomas Kelly, present assistant at St. Mark's, will take the

the Cresson sanatorium. Patients with plenty of time on their hands and who are in fair physical condition are given work to do—it is purely elective—and while thus busy they have less time for moody thoughts and worry over their own condition. The primary aim of this comparatively new method, aside from the development of skill of brain and hand, is this very objective of "taking the patient's mind away from himself."

In the basements of the east and west wings of the institution are the quarters of the "therapeutic" shops.
The former are for adults, the latter for children. The casual visitor to these scenes of industry during fall and winter is usually amazed at the skill displayed in making a hundred different sorts of things. There are all varieties of baskets, trays, glass holders, vases, etc., in red and raffia work, nicely painted or otherwise decorated. Knitting is in vogue to a great extent, sweaters, wristlets, mittens, gloves, hose, etc., being made by both men and women. Then there is a carpet weaving machine, which puts out a fine grade of rag carpet.
Great care is exercised in manufacture, the instructors insisting upon a superior grade of work, believing in the old adage that what is worth doing at all is worth doing well. Provision is made whereby patients may keep for their own use such articles
as they desire, after similar articles have been made by them for the state.

The boys and girls are engaged almost altogether in raffia and reed work and their working quarters are among the busiest in the institution.
Dr. W. G. Turnbull, the medical director, fully endorses the value of the occupational therapy classes, as a means of decreasing the mental per-turbation of the patients and thus hastening their recovery. Left to themselves they too often worry themselves into even worse condition than upon their admission, because a sane and cheerful mind is necessary concomitant in effective tuberculosis treatment as in other kinds of disease.

The Christmas sale of basketry and other ware, already mentioned, is one means whereby money is secured for the purchase of new material, including the imported reeds that are so extensively used here.

NEW LAW COVERS COUNTY HOSPITAL FOR TUBERCULOSIS

Sole Authority of County Commissioners Superseded by New Act—Board of Trustees.

The Commissioners of Cambria County having gone ahead, under the authorization of the voters who approved a bond issue for a County Tuberculosis Hospital, and secured a site, contracted for plans and specifications and in other ways set the wheels in motion to carry out the decision of the voters, they now find it necessary to conform to a new law, approved April 3, 1923, by Governor Pinchot. Under the old law relating to the establishment of county tuberculosis hospitals the Commissioners had sole power and authority so far as selection of a site, preparation of plans, and building operations were concerned, their decisions being reviewable by the State Health Commissioner. The act of May 20, 1921, under which the Commissioners have been proceeding, provided that after the completion of the hospital its management was invested in a board of five Trustees, appointed by the Court. The Trustees had nothing to say regarding selection of a site or the construction of the hospital.
The new law amends the 1921 law by providing that the five Trustees, together with the County Controller, shall have equal power and authority with the Commissioners in the selection of a hospital site and the construction of buildings. The work already done by the Commissioners in Cambria County will, of course, stand, but further proceedings must halt until the Court selects five Trustees to co-operate with the Controller and Commissioners. At a meeting, held in Ebensburg, a few days ago, a number of persons interested in the hospital project conferred, but nothing definite resulted, as it was not known to all those present that the new law was in effect. It is presumed that the object of the amendment to the 1921 law is to bring the Trustees into closer touch with the institution for the management of which they are to be responsible.

the advice that members of the borough council make an effort to break the existing dead-lock.
When the meeting opened, C. A. Cunningham nominated Dr. J. L. Paul, while G. E. Schwaderer placed in nomination the name of George M. Smith. After two ballots that resulted in the name of Mr. Smith was withdrawn, whereupon Edward Boes placed in nomination the name of John S. Willis, a former burgess of Cresson. Three ballots again resulted in ties and council called off any further attempts to fill the vacancy.

DIAMOND THEATRE NOTES

"THE GREAT MOMENT"
Gloria Swanson spent most of one day lying in a rude cot in a rough cabin during the filming of "The Great Moment," her first Paramount starring vehicle, written by Elinor Glyn and directed by Saw Wood, which will be the feature at the Diamond theatre Saturday, May 5.

This is the scene wherein she is presumably bitten by a rattle-snake and is in dangerous straits for some time. It was easy work to lie comfortably between the blankets but Miss Swanson made up for this when she came to some of the really strenuous scenes of the play.

"THE GREAT IMPERSONATION"

When the spectator witnesses the showing of "The Great Impersonation," George Melford's latest Paramount production, which will be shown at the Diamond theatre Tuesday, May 1, he will be carried on the wings of fancy to many different sections of the old world. A jolly room in Oxford college opens the picture, which then cuts to a dense jungle in German East Africa and a thatched cabin in a clearing. From there the film flashes to a Bohemian cafe in Vienna and English exteriors. Then, the audience is carried to the interior of the Kaiser's secret war vault on the Wilhelmstrasse in Berlin at a time just prior to the great war, when the Emperor was storing up his many heinous war machines to execute his plan to conquer the world. Next are seen the quarters of the German ambassador in London and settings representing offices in Scotland yard and other diplomatic headquarters. James Kirkwood is the featured player and Ann Forrest plays opposite him.

"SKIN DEEP."

Seldom is an episode packed so full of human interest, laughs and tears, as are the street scenes in the tenement district of a large city in Thomas H. Ince's special production, "Skin Deep," coming to the Diamond theatre next Wednesday. The picture tells the story of a crook who is snatched

MORE FORDS SOLD IN MARCH THAN IN ANY ONE MONTH IN HISTORY OF CO.

"More people want Ford Cars than ever before A. C. Schettig local Ford dealer said today.

"Fifty thousand more Fords were sold at retail in March than in any one month in the history of the Ford Motor Company, according to word from Detroit. The March sales totaled 179,764 Cars and Trucks.

"For a whole year sales have been running over 100,000 a month, bring- ing a total of 1,429,979 Ford Cars and Trucks into use in the United States along since April 1, 1922.

"Here in the Pittsburgh Branch territory of which this city is a part, the March sales were 4959, a big in- crease over last year for the same month. The demand for the Ford is just as great proportionately right here at home as it is anywhere else in the country.

"The company is now operating on the great manufacturing schedule in its history, so there are more Ford cars being built than ever before and improvements in all the different types make the Ford the best it ever has been.

"And Ford Cars are now easier to obtain than ever before because of the new Ford Weekly Purchase Plan which makes it possible for more families to have a car. Father, mother, sons and daughters all can participate in the plan and it is rather surprising the number of families who are tak- ing advantage of it so as to enjoy the pleasures that come with autom- obile ownership."

Claycomb Bros., were damaged by a fire that broke out in the planing mill early this morning. The loss will be in the neighborhood of $30,000, it is believed.

But for the timely arrival of the South Fork Fire Co., it is probable that the fire would have swept over the thickly-built portion of Summer- hill or perhaps wiped out the town almost completely. The fire in the planing mill had a good start when discovered and when the South Fork firemen arrived it was too late to save the structure.

Excellent work was accomplished in saving the other buildings, in view of the fact that the entire town was in darkness. The fire burned down a number of poles carrying electric cur- rent and great danger existed that the firemen would come in contact with live wires while fighting the blaze.

COALPORT GIRL KILLED IN WRECK OF AUTOMOBILE

A "blowout" of a tire of a Cadillac automobile containing 10 people Wednesday afternoon, near Ashville, overturned the car into a ditch and resulted in the death of Miss Margaret Cruiss, of Coalport, aged about 20. She sustained a broken neck. Five of the other nine sustained minor injuries, consisting of bruises, lacerations and cuts. The injured were given treatment by Dr. A. E. Krumbine of Ashville and Dr. Harry Somerville of Chest Springs and later returned to their homes in Altoona.

The automobile party left Altoona and was driving to Ashville, where Eugene Donahue, one of the party, has relatives. At a point about a fourth of a mile from Ashville, the Cadillac "blew" a tire and the car left the road, overturning and pinning Miss Cruiss beneath the machine.

FIRST CLASS GRADUATED
 BY ST. MONICA'S SCHOOL

Chest Springs, June 21.—St. Monica school graduated its first class here its evening with pleasing commencement exercises that included an exceptionally well presented play, "The Crown of Glory." The Rev. Stephen Ward, of Johnstown, gave the address and honors were distributed by the Rev. Joseph H. Farren. The Rev. P. Duggan is pastor of St. Monica's congregation.
 St. Monica's first high school graduates were Mabel Conrad, Gertrude Little, Saville Sutton, Charlotte Sutton, Ruth Sumerville, Gladys Sutton, Mildred Sutton and Gordon Durin. Eighth grade diplomas were presented to Alice Luverne Conrad, Jose Agnes Flick, Pearl Little, Susie McMullen, Agnes Plunkett, Samuel Kelly, Margaret Plunkett, Elizabeth Hoza, Frances Sutton and Olive Lorm.
 Charlotte Sutton, in the dramatic presentation, did well in the part of Hilda, a young artist who sacrifices everything to her ambition. Hilda falls asleep in her studio and in a dream beholds the spirits of earth judged and condemned. One only is crowned—The Service of Humanity, which was delightfully played by Olive Storm.

ents; and those not considered business men will finance a $500 fireworks, when I explain my reasons for this.
 "We all remember when we were permitted as children to spend some money for home fireworks which were enjoyed by the old folks as well as children and I have sometimes thought that the display of fireworks and the use of explosives on a day of this kind should be somewhat tolerated for if we are shielded from all our risks we will become what the great Roosevelt has called a Molly Coddie, and the definition of a Molly Coddie is one who has become little or no use to anybody else, either from being shielded from too many of the dangers of life or by natural cowardice.
 "This year I was somewhat in favor of letting down the bars to a real old time Fourth, but when I think of the many who have lost fingers, eyes and even lives by the indiscriminate use of Fourth of July explosives, I believe it is the better plan that the children, fathers and mothers and all who do not come within the business men's class finance a rousing combined fireworks display of at least $500, this display to be conducted by an expert and all the money subscribed over $500 to go into the general fund, as a display of this kind will be handled by those who understand this work. The children with some responsible person to accompany them can attend this display with little or no danger."
 The committee was impressed with this statement and secured the services of the Post Mistress, Miss Josephine Callan to take the subscription and name of every child and adult who would leave this subscription at the Post Office and use this fund for the purpose of having a rousing fireworks, financed by the citizens and conducted in a safe and sane way.
 Leave your subscription at the Post Office where the amount—every penny—will be accounted for.

DR. STITES IN CHARGE OF CRESSON SANATORIUM;
 SUCCEEDS DR. TURNBULL
 Appointment of Dr. Thomas H. A. Stites as medical director of the Cresson sanatorium, to succeed Dr. Wm. Turnbull, who has been appointed deputy state secretary of health, was announced this week by Dr. Charles Miner, secretary of health. Dr. Stites was director of the Hamburg sanatorium during the administration of Dr. Samuel G. Dixon as health commissioner and later was with the Federal public health service.

Swiss Yodlers will make their first appearance before a Cresson audience in the afternoon. This company of five will present a program of genuine mountain Folk-lore, appearing in their original Swiss costumes, all of the Swiss yodel songs will be sang in the English translation and in addition they will render a number of selections on the unique national instruments of the Swiss mountains, appearing again in the evening for a short program preceding the lecture on "Out of Nationalism Into Internationalism," as interpreted by that noted lecturer, Frank Dixon, whose subject will deal largely with the needs of the development of our great national resources and conservation of all natural resources for the benefit of the future.
 The program for the fourth day includes the Chamberlin-Babcock company consisting of Miss Charlotte Chamberlin, entertainer and accompanist, whose work includes whistling and bird imitations and Miss Babcock, pianist, who is the composer of "Jade" and "Hilarity," both popular piano numbers. Mrs. Marion Ballou Fisk will follow in the afternoon with her entertaining Cartoon lecture, painting, drawing and etching as she tells her stories. Mrs. Fisk uses twenty shades of colors in illustrating her stories and talks. In the evening Frank B. Pearson will lecture on "World Building," following a short concert by the same company as will appear in the afternoon. Mr. Pearson is the former Commissioner of Education of the State of Ohio and is at present the editor of the Ohio Educational Monthly and needs very little introduction to the majority of the people of Cresson.
 On the afternoon of the last day will be given the Junior Chautauqua's pageant, "Her Flag on Display," which will be rendered by the Juniors. Cresson has won the banner as the best Junior Chautauqua town for the past three years and it is the confident expectation of all that the children of this years junior town will retain their laurels and add new ones to work and to the fame of the town as the home of exceptionally bright and active children. This presentation will be followed by an entertainment mainly for the benefit of the children, but one that all will enjoy, as it will, to the oldest ones, bring back the days of yore, at which time Miss Esther Lots Schenkel will entertain with her child impersonations.
 The evening of the last day will witness the production of the Comedy Drama, "Crossed Wires," by a capable company of the Provincetown players under the personal direction of Jaesper

Hold Outing At Wildwood

The summer school which has been conducted at this place for the past several years by Miss Zita Durbin, one of the efficient instructors in the public schools of this place and who is being assisted this summer by Miss Genevieve Gallagher, also one of the instructors in the public schools, has now reached the stage where arrangements are being completed to make it a permanent school and steps looking to the acquirement of a permanent site
for summer school purposes are now under way. The school has been given the name of Wildwood in the Mountains, and a lease will in all probability be acquired on the location of the former well known site of the old Wildwood Inn near this place. On Tuesday the staff of the school, assisted by Miss Harriet Quartz, a student nurse from the William Penn Hospital in Pittsburgh, took the students to this spot in the cars of the Landis Taxi company and spent the day in swimming, games and instruction. Deck Lane, of Ebensburg, was on hand with his camera and took many pictures of the happy crowd.

The following students were present: Martha Harvey, Dorothy Burgan, Genevieve Stouck, Raymond Denny, Marion Rose, Helen Cupples,
John Eager, Fred Connell, Margaret
Ricketts, Clair Smith, Mary Agnes Callan, Robert Holcomb, Harold St.
John, Bennie Landis, Frank Diehl,
Jeane Deibl, Regina Yabner, Mae
Farabaugh, Katherine Garrett, Irene Drass, Mary Marnecheck, Mary Ritter, William Reilly, Thomas C. Lane,
Stuart Currie, Russell Gauntner, Louis
Consentino, Leane Eger, Elizabeth Lynch, Mente Wagner, Florence San-ker and Agnes Anstead.

During the present term instruction is being given for entrance to high schools and in the preliminary and intermediate departments. The school has grown with amazing speed and it is felt on account of the healthful location that it can be made much larger and draw pupils from surrounding towns who are anxious for intensive study combined with outdoor activity, as a certain portion of each day is devoted to athletic and other outdoor activities.

sult of a number of the children being ill of scarlet fever. At present six children are suffering from the contag-

However, no one will be admitted to the ward under quarantine, but visitors will be admitted to all other parts of the building and grounds, the

MORE IMPROVEMENT AT MOUNTAIN LAKE

Improvement of thirty acres of land
at Mountain Lake park is under way and the resort is being converted into one of the most attractive recreation centers in this part of the state.

The woods are being thinned out and part of the tract is being cleared.
A baseball diamond and picnic ground
will be provided.

The big swimming pool is very popular, drawing large crowds each day.
Construction of a siding and station on the New Portage railroad is underway. This will greatly increase the facilities for getting to the park.
